MEDICAL CONSENT

In these days of lawsuits, medical consent forms are a necessity for every outing. The basic idea of the form is that it gives parental authorization for a doctor to treat a minor. It also provides information on where the parents and family doctor can be located.

The consent form provides protection for the doctor, the child, and the Club director.

1. The Doctor - a doctor who would give medical assistance to a child without the parents' knowledge, would take a tremendous risk. If the results are serious or even fatal, the parents may sue. A signed consent form may be enough to persuade a doctor that the parents are unlikely to sue. (Many young people have been given medical aid at a remote hospital or office after the leader produced a consent form. Other times the form has not helped at all).

2. The Child - leaders who take a child on an outing have an obligation to provide the best medical care. Not having a form could severely reduce that chance.

3. The Director - if a child is injured and unable to get proper medical care because the director did not bother to require medical consent forms, that director could certainly be a target for a liability suit.

Note:

Medical consent forms may be dated in such a way that they are suitable for the whole year. This has the obvious advantage of saving a lot of work in collecting new forms for each outing. There are two disadvantages to year-long consent forms. First, a form signed several months ago will not be as impressive to a doctor as one signed yesterday. Secondly, the form won't have current information on the location of the parents. They may be out of town the weekend of the particular outing on which their child is injured. Use your judgment.

CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Pathfinders will be on time at all Club meetings and events. Chronic tardiness will be taken into account when evaluating a Pathfinder's Personal Performance.
2. Field Uniform (club T-shirt, shorts with length to the knees or jeans, tennis shoes) will be worn at all Club meetings and informal activities and functions unless specified otherwise, including campouts. Open toe shoes are not allowed at Club meetings.
3. Complete Class A or B uniform will be worn at all formal Club activities and designated Club meetings. Class A uniform consists of: tan shirt with all patches and pins, slacks (boys), black skirt or black pants (girls), black socks (boys) black socks or tan nylons (girls), black dress shoes (closed-toe), sash, scarf, black belt/buckle, and uniforms slide. Class B uniform is all of the above without the sash, scarf, and slide.
4. Jewelry: We, as members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, believe that the wearing of jewelry and the display of wealth it implies is inconsistent with Pathfinding's principles. Therefore, we request that no visible jewelry be worn to any Pathfinder function. This also prevents the loss of valuable items.
5. Pathfinder should attempt to participate in every activity and will maintain good conduct always.
6. Pathfinders will not talk back to Pathfinder Staff or any older person at any time. Profanity is a cause for suspension.
7. Pathfinders whose conduct presents a continual or special problem will be subject to suspension upon the staff's recommendation.
8. During Club meetings or events, Pathfinders will stay together with the counselor, instructor, or director to speak, leave the area, or to go on an errand. If a Pathfinder needs to leave the group area, they must have permission from a counselor and sign-out as instructed.
9. Pathfinders will come to attention when called to "fall in" or "line up."
10. Pathfinders will treat fellow Pathfinders with courtesy and respect. Pathfinders will be a "Servant of God" and a "Friend to man" at all times, whether during Club meetings, events, at home, church, school, or in the community.
11. On Camp-outs, Pathfinders will take turns doing Kitchen Patrol duty as scheduled and help with any after camping tasks. We must work as a team. Pathfinders should not expect to go home until all equipment is cleaned and put away.
12. Pathfinders will abide by the Pathfinder's Camping Code while camping. Refer to page 67.
