

Helping Hand Activity Book

This book belongs to _____

Note to Instructors and Parent(s)/Guardian(s)

This activity book is designed as an ancillary resource to the Helping Hand curriculum. It is important that Adventurers learn through all their senses, so singing, smelling, listening, and activities that require movement should be of primary importance in your program.

Activity booklets may be used in whole, or the pages may be removed and completed one at a time. Collecting the completed pages and binding them together (with a stapler, yarn, or in a binder) at the end of the year will provide a keepsake for the children to remind them of their year as a Helping Hand.

In the back of this booklet you will find teaching helps for each activity (look for the icon to the right) and a checklist of investiture requirements for the Helping Hand level.

Noah—Water Cleans the Earth

People became so disobedient that they were destroying everything. God decided to wash away all the sin and evil and try again. He saved everyone who would listen by asking Noah to build a special ark for them.

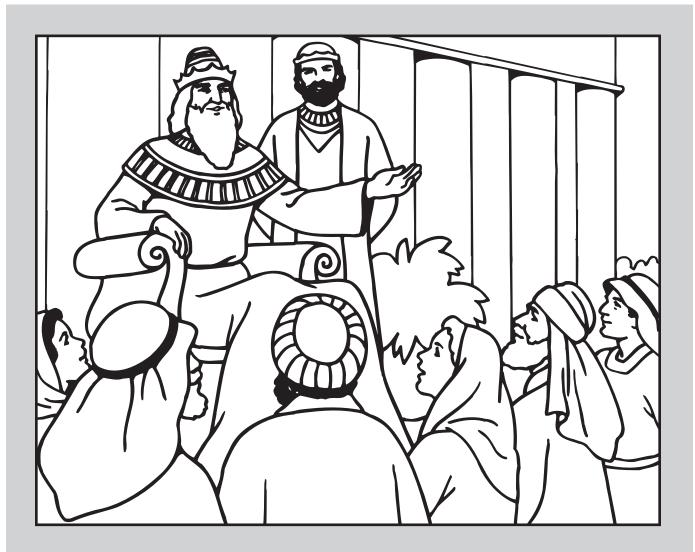

Abraham—God Calls a People

God decided to choose a special group of people to teach the world about Him. He called Abraham and Sarah to a new country and made them the "father" and "mother" of His new nation.

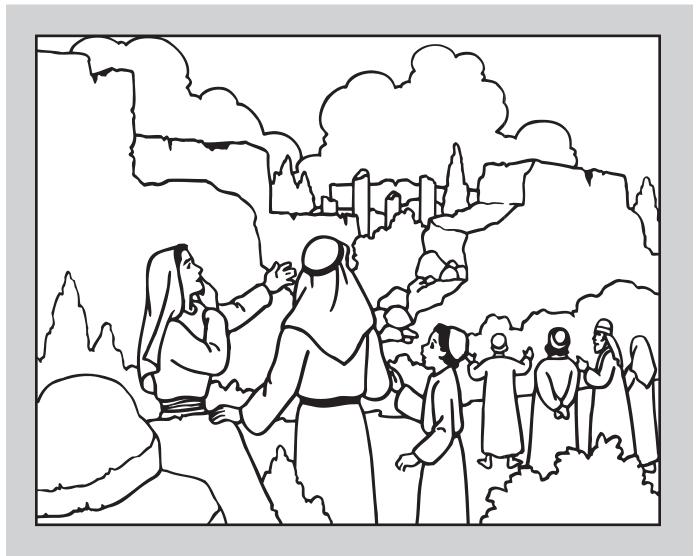

Moses—A Promised Land for God's People

God rescued His people from slavery just as He had promised. He brought them to a beautiful "Promised Land." He told them how to live so they would be happy and healthy.

David—God Works with His People

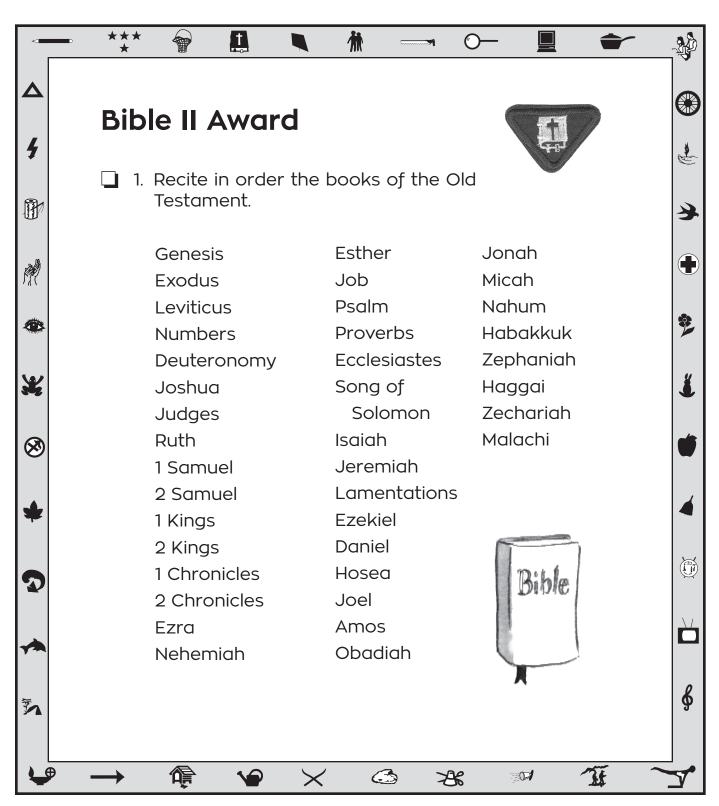

God's people, Israel, did not always trust Him but He continued to help those who would listen. David, the "shepherd king," loved to tell of God's mercy and justice.

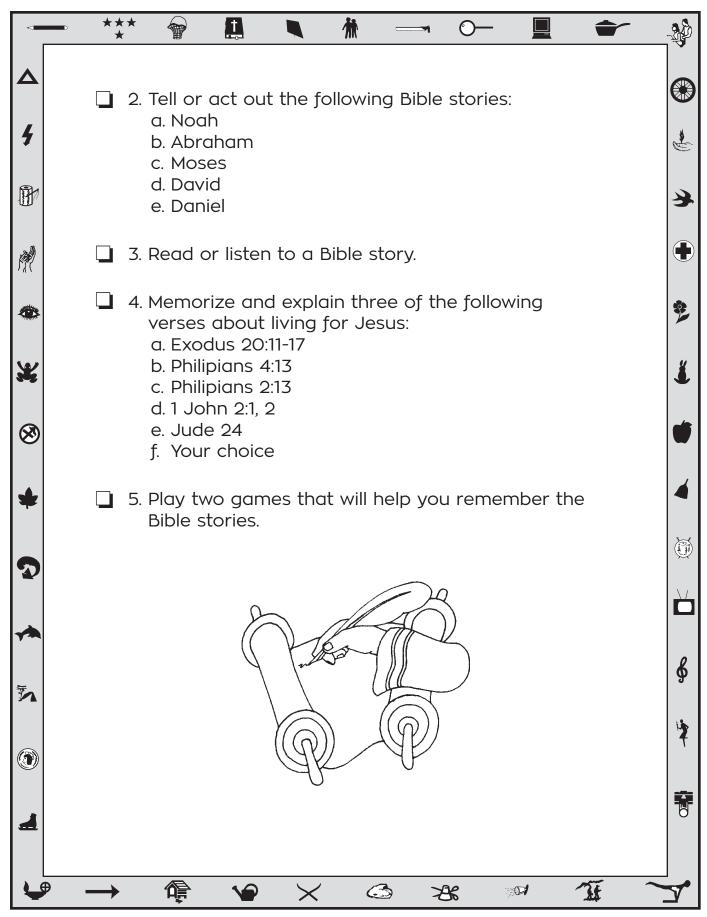

Daniel—God's People Disobey

Israel refused to obey God. He finally let them be taken captive, hoping they would realize their mistake. Some listened to God and returned to Israel, but they never became what God had planned.

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

Each Helping Hand may choose one person such as a leader, family member, younger Adventurer, or friend to explain the Law to.

In explaining the Law, the Helping Hand may tell its meaning in his/her own words or give examples of when to use it or how to keep it.

Basic

The Helping Hand Reading award is given to children who read or listen while someone else reads:

- 1. 1 Samuel 1-3 from a simple, modern translation of the Bible
- 2. A Bible story book or a book about Jesus
- 3. A book on health or safety
- 4. A book on family, friends, or feelings
- 5. A book on history or missions
- 6. A book on nature

Provide children with several good books to choose from which will help them to understand and apply the things they are learning this year in the Helping Hand level.

Be sure that the books are:

- 1. True to life. The books must present an accurate picture of reality. It must not be overly simplistic, sentimental, or exciting.
- 2. Lasting value. A good book helps the child to understand God, human nature, or the things of creation without appearing to be preachy and contrived.
- 3. Morally positive. Evil and sin are recognized as such, and receive their just reward. The good should be upheld as the model and goal for the children.

- 4. Enjoyable. The book should be one that the adult enjoys reading. (If the adult does not enjoy it, it is highly unlikely that the child will—or should.)
- 5. Developmentally appropriate. A good book will fit the child's level of reading ability, sophistication, and interest.

My God: God's Plan to Save Me Page 5

Background Information

Beginning with a recognition of the love and watchcare of God at the Busy Bee level, Adventurers have learned to recognize the presence of evil in the world and in their own lives. They are learning to escape from evil by receiving forgiveness and power through Jesus Christ.

The goal of the Helping Hand requirements is to provide children with a reminder of the beginning steps of salvation and to encourage them to continue in the Christian life even though it is often hard.

The following basic concepts are found in each of the stories and verses:

- 1. I want to obey God and escape from evil. I recognize the destructiveness of evil and am sorry for my part in it.
- 2. I can give my life to Jesus, and He will give me a new clean heart. When I give Him my life, He makes me a part of His redeemed family and helps me obey Him.
- 3. I do my best to live for Him, and He is always there to forgive and help me when I ask. I love Him because He has given me eternal life. I want Him to continue to forgive and help me.

4. I am becoming the person He wants me to be. I will be persistent in letting Jesus help me grow up to be just like my Father. He promises that I will if I trust and obey Him.

The Bible story chart and lapbook may be used in three different ways:

- 1. Place the pictures on a large wall story chart, adding each new picture as you tell the story. The children may refer to this chart as they work on their own chart(s) and as they learn about other stories from the Bible and history.
- 2. Provide the children with a practice activity by making available a blank chart and the pictures provided on pp. 6–10. The children may set the blank chart on the floor and place the pictures in order on the chart.
- 3. Children may also color the pictures and create their own story charts or lapbooks.

In the first presentation, use the Bible story chart to give an overview of the battle between good and evil and show how the Helping Hand stories fit into that battle.

- 1. Review the sections of history covered previously: creation and the fall; Jesus' life and death; the Christian church; and Jesus' second coming and heaven. The pictures and labels describing these events may be placed on the story chart in black and white.
- 2. Color the new Helping Hand pictures and add them to the story chart or lapbook as you briefly describe how they fit into God's plan of salvation. Briefly discuss the stories and pictures from these levels.

My God: God's Power in My Life Page 13

Your child needs your example and leadership as he/she tries to form good devotional habits.

You can help by:

- Having your own daily quiet time with Jesus daily
- Leading out in family worship daily
- Enthusiastically sharing some of the inspiration and insights you receive during your quiet time

- Helping your child choose a wise time and place for his/her quiet time
- Being a part of your child's quiet time until he/ she is able and eager to continue on his own

Page 15

You or another adult can be a great encouragement to the Helping Hand as he/she learns how to work with God to become like Him.

- Carefully help him/her choose a goal that is worthwhile and reachable.
- Provide lots of encouragement for small improvements.
- Consider working on a similar project of your own so you can relate to the child's experience.

A parent, teacher, pastor, Sabbath School leader, Adventurer staff person, or adult Christian friend may serve as an adult helper.

My Self: I Am Special Page 16

Background Information

Our society often leads children to believe that they are not really talented unless they are good in school, sports, or the arts. This is misleading, because there are many areas in which the children may excel. Each is a gift from God and is given for a special purpose.

Children may have:

- Artistic/creative talents: Art, music, poetry
- Interpersonal talents: Speaking, sensitivity, humor, leadership, making friends
- Physical talents: Athletic or work ability (strength, coordination, speed, or agility); working with one's hands
- Intellectual talents: Remembering and understanding, writing, planning and organizing, decision-making

My Self: I Can Care for My Body Page 20

Make this award fun by:

- Inviting a dentist or dental hygienist to speak to the Helping Hands
- Providing a toothbrush, toothpaste, and floss for each Adventurer
- Having a water-drinking contest

My Family: Families Care for Each Other Page 23

Help the children list a variety of activities and choose what they would like to do:

- Worships may include a skit or favorite Bible game, songs, and prayer
- Family night activities may include such things as a special dinner or a living room picnic
- Family outings may be to the zoo, park, or special friend's home
